INFORMATION CONCERNING MEASURES TAKEN BY UKRAINE WITH A VIEW TO IMPLEMENTING UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION 757 (1992)

As a Member of the United Nations, Ukraine has always demonstrated its sincere commitment to the noble purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, and its unconditional support for the efforts of the Security Council to maintain international peace and security.

Ukraine fully supported Security Council resolution 757 (1992), in the conviction that its adoption would contribute to the resolution of the crisis in the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, on the basis of strict observance by all sides of the principle of non-use of force, respect for human rights, the protection of all minorities, and effective guarantees of equal participation in the political process by all population groups.

On 17 June 1992, the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine adopted resolution 342, under which the ministries and government departments of Ukraine, the Council of Ministers of the Republic of Crimea, local state administrations, and enterprises, associations, organizations and establishments which engage in export-import transactions with the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro), maintain maritime or air links, provide engineering and maintenance servicing of ships and aircraft, including insurance services, or maintain sporting, scientific, technical and cultural links are required to ensure implementation of the relevant provisions of United Nations Security Council resolution 757 (1992).

A number of measures have been taken by State agencies, enterprises and organizations of Ukraine for the full implementation of the provisions of paragraphs 4 to 9 of resolution 757 (1992).

With respect to paragraph 8 (a) of the resolution, there are no diplomatic missions or consular posts of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) in Ukraine.

Ukraine reaffirms that it is prepared to cooperate as closely as possible with the Security Council in carrying out the measures arising out of resolution 757 (1992).
